

TOWNS SWEEPED AWAY BY THE BIG STORM

A TERRIFIC HURRICANE RAGES IN FLORIDA.

Fully Half a Hundred Persons Said to Have Been Killed—Eleven Deaths in and Around Savannah, Ga.—Fatalities in Other Sections—General Storm News.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 1.—It is a conservative estimate to say that fifty people have lost their lives from Tuesday's hurricane, and the number may run much higher. News from that portion of the state where the storm first struck is very very slow in coming, for wires are down and railroads are impassable.

The hurricane struck Florida at Cedar Keys, a village of 1,500 inhabitants, and reports show that it passed in its path of destruction over twenty towns and villages and that between thirty and forty persons have certainly been killed. The only report which has come concerning Cedar Keys is that the town has been swept away and many lives have been lost. This report comes from Gainesville, which is fifty miles away. Nobody has been able to get anything direct from Cedar Keys.

Moving northeasterly, the storm struck Willistown, a small town, where eleven houses were blown down. One person was killed and several so badly hurt that it is expected they will die.

Near here is a large turpentine farm, where state convicts are employed. Twenty of these were huddled together in a cabin. A heavy tree was blown across the cabin and six of the convicts were crushed to death.

In Alachua county the storm did frightful work. In Gainesville the Methodist church and about twenty residences and business houses were destroyed, and while a number of people were hurt no fatalities are reported.

At LaCrosse fifteen buildings were destroyed. The Rev. W. A. Barr, Mrs. F. F. McIntosh and her baby are reported killed. Near there four laborers, who were in a cabin at a turpentine farm, were crushed by falling trees.

Newberry, in West Alachua, is totally wrecked. C. J. Eastin, Mrs. Nancy Moss, Frank Olmstead and David Jones were killed.

At High Springs, Melissa Harden, Jane Morris and Sallie Nobles, colored women, are reported to have been killed. At Gracy, a small place, twelve houses were blown down; a woman was killed, but a babe at her breast was unhurt, although it had been carried some distance by the force of the wind.

At Lake Butler, Bradford county, Mr. C. H. Harkey, Mrs. J. M. Futch and her infant were fatally hurt. Many buildings were blown down.

At Live Oak the destruction is complete, but no loss of life is reported. Near Welborn the house of Amos White was destroyed and two of his children were killed. At Lake City eight business houses and thirteen residences were destroyed. Mrs. Sarah Fletcher and two boys were killed and Dora Jennings, Samuel Hudson and Jonas Mabrey were fatally injured. Six persons are reported killed at Fort White, in Columbia county.

The hurricane passed over Duval county, striking the edges of Jacksonville, but doing very little damage. There was no loss of life here.

Just north of here, however, in Nassau county, considerable destruction is reported. Five children were killed in the wreck of a schoolhouse. Miss Stewart, the teacher, had her arm broken. Lila Rails, a 12-year-old girl, was killed at her home, her mother being fatally injured. Harry Johnson, was also killed. At Hillyards, another schoolhouse was wrecked and four children were killed. At Kings Ferry, Andy Johnson, Moses Lassiter, Simon Henderson, May Jones and a child were killed. Three sailors were killed on schooners that were loading lumber at Kings Ferry.

Across the line into Georgia the devastation was continued. At Folkston, which is near the Okefenokee swamp, the schoolhouse was wrecked and four children were killed. Several casualties are reported in Camden county, Georgia. The storm then continued on its way to Brunswick and Savannah.

There is no way to estimate the property loss in Florida. The losses may seem heavier now than they will when more closely examined but talk with insurance men here is that Florida losses will foot up $2,000,000.

HAVOC IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Two Killed Near Reading—Big Bridge at Columbia Is Wrecked.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 1.—At 2 o'clock Wednesday morning the east house of the Temple furnace, at Temple station, five miles above Reading, was blown down by the wind and nearly a dozen workmen were buried in the ruins. The men were pinned under by the heavy timbers, and it was some time before they could be reached. All are badly hurt and it is believed some of them will die.

Pittsburg Pa., Oct. 1.—A terrific wind and main storm broke over this section about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning and raged with fierce intensity for nearly three hours. Heavy washouts are reported on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Huntingdon, and all trains were from four to six hours late.

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 1.—For over an hour Tuesday night this city and country were subjected to the severest wind-storm ever known. The greatest single loss is that of the Pennsylvania railroad bridge across the Susquehanna at Columbia, nothing being left of it but the piers, the iron span in the middle and the first span at each end. The bridge was a mile and a quarter long, and was said to be the longest covered bridge in the world. It is reported that two men went down with the bridge, but no trace of them can be found. The bridge cost $1,000,000.

Columbia appears to have suffered more than any other section of the county. The damage in the borough is estimated at $500,000, and the streets are filled with portions of the wrecked buildings.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 1.—Tuesday night's storm did great damage in this state, but the wires are down in nearly every direction and it is difficult to obtain reliable information.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 1.—Tuesday night's storm destroyed the coal breaker at Natalie, belonging to the Pennsylvania Anthracite Coal company. Six tenement houses belonging to the camp were destroyed by fire, and six children, inmates, lost their lives.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 1.—The damage caused by the cyclone that passed over this section Tuesday night is greater than earlier reports indicated. It is now thought the total loss will reach $350,000. Fourteen dwelling houses and twenty board shanties occupied by the mine-workers were also blown down, and five of the former were consumed by flames. Two of the tenants were killed, several injured and eleven cattle were crushed to death beneath the dismantled

ELEVEN DEAD AT SAVANNAH.

The Damage to Buildings and Shipping Will Be Enormous.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 1.—The hurricane which swept over Savannah Tuesday cost nearly a dozen lives and entailed a financial loss of nearly $1,000,000. Each report that is received is worse than at first. It was thought only one death would be the result of the hurricane, but the number has increased until there are eleven persons reported dead. Among prominent buildings damaged by the storm are City Exchange, Duffy Street Baptist church, St. Philip's African Methodist church, Central railway warehouses, St. Patrick's school, Georgia hussars' armory, Henley hall, city market, electric railway power house, Vale Royal mills, Comer, Hull & Co's guano factory, Commercial Guano company's factory, Jones' Marine railway, Fawcett Bros' wholesale grocery building, Henry Solomon & Son's wholesale grocery and M. J. Doyle's retail grocery. Hundreds of residences are damaged and the most beautiful trees in the city are down. The loss to shipping will amount to over $100,000.

Storm at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Reports received from the suburban towns about Washington show that great damage was done throughout the surrounding country by Tuesday night's storm. Reports from Rockville, Md., and other small places along the metropolitan branch of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad show that the storm did great damage, but no loss of life was reported.

A new brick building, five stories high, in Pennsylvania avenue, in this city, was demolished, the ruins falling upon and crushing Beatty's restaurant and Kelly's dairy lunch adjoining, and imprisoning six men. All were rescued. Seven men at work in the building ran out. The storm's damage here is estimated to run from $250,000 to $500,000.

Four Killed at Alexandria.

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 1.—The storm relatively was more severe in Alexandria than in Washington. There were four fatalities and three persons more or less injured. The churches suffered severely. The First Baptist was completely demolished; St. Elmo Baptist was also wrecked, and Robert's Chapel lost its spire. Nearly every business block in town was more or less damaged, and hundreds of private houses lost their roofs. The loss in and around Alexandria is estimated at $400,000.

Killed in Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 1.—It is reported from Texas, a small town in Baltimore county, Maryland, that one man was killed and six injured by Tuesday night's storm. All the regular steamers of the various Chesapeake bay lines have arrived and report terrific weather at sea.

Much Damage in New York.

New York, Oct. 1.—Tuesday night's windstorm, though furious in this city and vicinity, as elsewhere in the east, did but little damage ashore and thus far no disasters on the Long Island, New Jersey or New England coasts, have been reported. Several fires occurred in near-by towns.

Shipping Damaged at Brunswick.

Brunswick, Ga., Oct. 1.—Twelve vessels in the harbor were more or less severely damaged by Tuesday's hurricane. Scarcely a vessel in port escaped without some damage.

INDOOR MEETINGS HELD AT CANTON, OHIO.

Rain Interferes with the Elaborate Programme Arranged for Visiting Delegations—Union Generals Speak at Omaha, Neb.—Campaign Notes for the Republican Side.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 1.—The only delegation to see Maj. McKinley arrived in a special of nine coaches at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, with rain pouring down in torrents. The party was taken to the tabernacle, where, shortly after 9 o'clock, Mr. McKinley went to receive the greetings delivered by W. E. Gray, chairman of the Center county (Pennsylvania) republican central committee. The party organized at Bellefonte and represented the first Pennsylvania county to instruct delegates for McKinley. Mr. McKinley addressed the delegation briefly.

A delegation from northern Ohio was expected, but on account of the bad weather the excursion was postponed.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Owing to the continued rains the pilgrimage of bicyclists from Ohio and Kentucky to Canton did not start from here. The trip was postponed till Saturday, Oct. 10. The wheelmen expect to reach Canton Oct. 13, when they will give a parade at McKinley's home.

Union Generals at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 1.—Citizens of Omaha to the number of 10,000 paid their respects to the union veteran generals Wednesday night. Boyd's opera house could not accommodate all those who desired to hear the speeches. Karbaugh hall was used for an overflow meeting, and the veterans spoke at both places, in order that none should be disappointed.

Is Chamberlain's Life in Peril?

Salem, Mass., Oct. 1.—The Salem News publishes a story with reference to the visit of the Rt.-Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of the colonies of Great Britain, which has created a sensation. It is said that Mr. Chamberlain's visit to this country was largely due to the discovery by the Scotland Yard detectives of the dynamite plot in which Tynan, Ivory and others are alleged to be implicated.

Ammonia Tank Explodes.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—Schmidt's brewery was the scene of a peculiar accident last night, which resulted in the painful injury of twelve well-known residents. A tank of ammonia exploded while a crowd was standing at the door of the brewery, and the concussion burst the glass doors from their hinges and flung them full in the faces of the spectators. Many people were cut or burned by the flames which leaped from the room.

Universalists in Convention.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—The Illinois Universalist convention was in session all day Wednesday at the Ryder Memorial church, 64th street and Kimbark avenue. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Frederick A. Winkelman; vice-president, A. A. Thayer; secretary, George F. Hughes; treasurer, Henry H. Massey. The Young People's Christian union occupied the attention of the convention in the evening.

Tie Up of Road Is Complete.

Winnipeg, Oct. 1.—The strike on the Canadian Pacific railway remains unchanged. Only main-line passenger trains are moving, though two freight trains got out Wednesday. The company is receiving no perishable freight, and a fruit and meat famine is imminent. The grain rush should be on and dealers are kicking. It is reported that all wires east of Winnipeg are down.

Bank Officers Indicted.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 1.—The grand jury of the criminal district court found seven indictments against W. P. Nichols, president, and John B. De Blanc, cashier of the Bank of Commerce, charging embezzlement. Seven sums of money are mentioned in the indictment, giving dates between June 24, 1893, and Feb. 24, 1895, aggregating $84,000. The men gave bail, each for $24,500.

His assets are $520,000 and liabilities $160,665.82. The assignment caused the wildest excitement.

Prosecution of Bell Withdrawn.

London, Oct. 1.—The Daily Mail says that the prosecution of Edward Bell, who was later identified as Edward J. Ivory of New York, will be withdrawn, owing to the failure of the government to secure the extradition of Tynan, Kearney and Haines.

Musulmans are Convicted.

Constantinople, Oct. 1.—(delayed in transmission).—The extraordinary tribunal convicted the first Musulmans for the murder of Armenians and sentenced them to fifteen years' imprisonment. At the same time, however, a long list of Armenians suspected of being implicated in the outbreak were condemned to death.

Want No Distinction.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Some Naval officers, besides seeking the reorganization of the personnel, are uniting in a movement to secure the privilege of retirement after 40 years of service. The ground is that as such a law applies to the army, there should be no distinction in this respect between the two services.

Didn't Mean to Kill the Woman.

St. Louis, Oct. 1.—Jennie Love was shot in the head and instantly killed by William Swanson. The testimony of several witnesses goes to show that the bullet which ended the woman's life was intended for William Lee, a negro, with whom Swanson had been quarreling. Jealousy about the woman is the cause alleged.

Hinshaw Denies Confession.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—The Rev. William E. Hinshaw, convicted of murdering his wife at Clayton, and sentenced to life imprisonment, denies the story recently circulated at the Evansville Methodist conference that he had made a confession. In a letter to a friend he says: "I only wish that he who would place a spot upon the character of my sainted wife, by putting a falsehood into my mouth, would think twice before he does it. Let him who would stand in obscurity and hurl his poisoned darts into the public mind remember how dishonorable are his methods and how infinitely contemptible are his works. All men when placed before the public eye have cause to beg for charity. So have I. But the only thing I now care to ask of men is justice."

Operators May Strike.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 1.—There is much conjecture here as to whether the operators of the Grand Trunk road will assist in the struggle of the Canadian Pacific men. It is said on reliable authority that the Grand Trunk operators and switchmen are only awaiting a favorable opportunity to join the men and force the company to comply with their terms. Trains on the Canadian Pacific are delayed.

REBUILDING TO BE BEGUN AT EVANSVILLE.

Loss by the Fire Will Be Fully $25-
000, and Only Three Losers Have Insurance—Orfordville's Rally Was an Enthusiastic One—Other County
News.

Evansville, Wis., Sept. 30.—Last night's fire would have been worse had it not been for the rain and the assistance rendered by the Madison and Janesville departments. The buildings burned were mostly old and not especially valuable. Following is a list of property destroyed:

Flora E. Winston, two tenements and one carpenter shop; no insurance.
Hoxie Bros., new building, used for school purposes; no insurance.
Matthew Broderick, livery barn; no insurance.
Barn occupied by Charles Spoor, horse dealer, who saved all stock except two horses; no insurance.

Morehouse estate building, used for shoe shop and bicycle repair and tenements; no insurance.

George Plaisted, shoe shop, in above building, stock partly saved; no insurance.

Uriah Stinson, building, used for barber shop and tenements; no insurance.

Herb Van Patten, barber shop in above building, stock removed; no insurance.

L. A. Hoxie, store and tenement; no insurance.

Boatwick & Voelz, tailors, stock partially removed; lost covered by insurance.

H. N. Simons, store and tenement; no insurance.

Cynthia Bucklin, fancy goods; insured.

Seville Bros., cigar manufacturers; no insurance.

Almeron Eager, store and tenements; no insurance.

Bryon Campbell, building occupied by Campbell as meat market and by tenants; no insurance.

Daniel Johnson estate, store and tenements; no insurance.

Emery & Searies, groceries, in Johnson building, goods removed; insured.

D. C. M. Smith, building, occupied by Dr. Smith and son for office; no insurance.

The stocks of merchandise and furniture removed were considerably damaged. Many of the people occupying rooms over the business places lost nearly everything and some will have to be supported for a time by the city. The insurance is small, owing to the high rate charged on account of the character of the buildings which were of wood and very old.

The fire originated in a lively barn owned by John Broderick, which together with three horses, was burned. The fire then extended east on Main street, east on Main street, completely destroying the entire block to Madison and Main street. It is expected that the buildings will be replaced before the building season ends. The loss will be fully $25,000 according to the last estimates made.

ORFORDVILLE ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY

Bad Weather Could Not Keep the People Home.

Orfordville, Sept. 30.—Sixteen to one appears to be a conservative estimate of the McKinley sentiment of Spring Valley today.

It was terribly dark.

It was horribly muddy.

It was fearfully rainy.

Yet notwithstanding these facts every seat in the Opera House was filled last evening to hear Governor Hoad expound republicanism. In spite of the unfavorable weather, long before the hour for the meeting to commence farmers came driving through the rain six and eight miles thus showing their eagerness to hear discussions of the pending issues. The Ex-Governors exposition of the reason for existing conditions carried conviction and enthusiasm was at a high pitch.

The stage was filled with prominent republicans, among whom were the republican county nominees, all of whom were present, except Mr. Acheson.

E. O. Kimberly charmed the audience with "McKinley Prosperity," "Protection," and other rousing campaign songs.

At the close of the principal address, short speeches were delivered by the various county candidates, and at about 10:45 the meeting adjourned, all feeling that "it was good for us to be here."

Chairman Taylor in introducing the speaker, referred to the fact of their being present the county ticket, "with one exception, that one being the one with whom the democratic party would have the most to do after November 3, not the sheriff, but the coroner. We have not met this evening to advocate the election of McKinley, for since the election in Maine that fact has been conceded, but we are here to get the consent of the few democrats, if there are any, to making it unanimous."

Mr. Hoad spoke for an hour and thirty minutes, taking for his "text," "What Is the Matter With Our Country?"

try?" His speech was a masterly effort, and was delivered by pointed and pithy stories, showing that the present trouble was not due to a lack of money, but to overproduction and under consumption. There is as much money now as in 1892, but the McKinley tariff had been replaced by the Wilson-Gorman tariff, which was a tariff for deficiency only. The latter part of the speech was devoted to the discussion of the silver issue. The popular position on this question was picked to pieces by the speaker in a forceful, logical manner. At the conclusion of the speech, short addresses were made by the various candidates for county office. Judging from the demonstration last night, it is safe to say that this part of Rock county will go "16 to 1" for McKinley and Hobart.

CAPT. NORCROSS SPOKE AT AFTON

He Held the Close Attention of His Audience—Other News.

Afton, Oct. 1.—A large crowd assembled at Lawton's hall last Friday evening, to hear Captain Pliny Norcross expound republican doctrine. The speaker talked from a business man's standpoint, and held the close attention of his audience throughout. The McKinley quartette made its first appearance at this meeting, and rendered a few selections. Town of Rock republicans are not imbibing any of the free silver fallacies at present abroad in the land, but will stand like "rocks" for McKinley, protection and sound money. John C. Eddy, J. H. Eddy, J. B. Humphrey, David Throne and U. G. Waite attended the great Spooner meeting at Janesville, Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Skinner and daughter, of Brodhead, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Antisdel returned last Saturday from a two weeks' visit with Iowa relatives. Master Floyd Miller, a grandson, accompanied them on their trip. All report a pleasant time. Mrs. William Brinkman has been quite seriously ill, but is better at this writing. Harry S. Bixby, of Le Mars, Iowa, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity, for a few days, left Wednesday for Capron, Illinois, where he will assume the position of baggage man in the C. & N. W. depot.

Gossip From Porter.

Porter, Oct. 1.—Farmers are busy plowing in this locality. This town can boast of the finest roads this fall, that it has had for some time. The severe frosts have put corn cutting to an end, as the leaves are all dried up, and of no use for fodder. Miss Hattie Lay is teaching in the Leyden district again this fall. Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Pound attended the state fair, and took in the sights of the Cream City last week. A young "silver democrat" put in an appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McCarthy last Thursday. All doing well. Charles Walker of Evansville was a caller on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Dooley, spent Sunday in Stouten. Frank Boss, has resumed work in the Eagle factory, making his home in the Dooley family. Miss Maggie McCarthy was the guest of U. H. Flarity's family near Edgerton a few days the last of the week.

AIR IS HARNESSSED BY MR. HOADLEY

HE INVENTS A WONDERFUL
STREET CAR MOTOR.

Mr. Yerkes, of Chicago, Offers Him
$1,000,000 For the Right To Use
the Motor in That City—New York
Company Adopts the Invention—
Revolutionize the Systems.

Joseph H. Hoadley, who will be remembered as the husband of Mrs. Fanny Curtiss, a niece of Mrs. W. T. Vankirk, has gotten up a motor that will make him rich and famous. The invention is a "compressed air motor" for street cars, and for generating power in general, and recent trying tests made at Worcester, Mass., have proved the machine a success. High officers of the Metropolitan Traction Company of New York, witnessed the test, and will at once put the motors on all the cars on the immense system. So powerful is the motor that a car running seventeen miles an hour can be stopped in its own length by the same motive that runs it. Mr. Yerkes has made Mr. Hoadley's company an offer of $1,000,000 for the right to use the system in Chicago. The invention will revolutionize the street car systems of the country, and will do away with the "deadly trolley" in time. Future generations will probably read of Mr. Hoadley as one of the greatest inventors of the age, as his machine is thought to be one of the most valuable ever built.

Represents Much Study.

Capt. Vankirk received a letter from Mr. Hoadley some time ago, in which he stated that he was working on a "big thing" that could not fail, and his statement seems to have been literally correct.

Mr. Hoadley is a mechanical engineer, and his invention is the result of much hard work and study. The Worcester Telegram devotes a column and a half to the invention, and says that the Metropolitan Traction Company's orders will keep the factory running on over time for some months to come. The workmen of that town are delighted at the prospect, as it will them steady employment. The company's present factory is much too small, and in all probability, additional buildings will be put up at once. "Experiments on the Keeley motor can now be abandoned," said Capt. Vankirk, when a Gazette reporter called to question him in regard to the motor. "Mr. Hoadley's invention solves the problem. He took up the work where Keeley left off, and has produced a much more wonderful machine."

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

It Is To Be Held at Oshkosh Next Week.

The state convention of the Baptist church will be held at Oshkosh October 5 to 8. All the members of the denomination and one delegate from each church are expected to attend. The annual sermon will be preached by the Rev. W. I. Coburn, of Milwaukee. Dr. M. G. Dodge and B. F. Danwiddle, of this city, will take part.

CUPIDS BONDS ARE FORGED.

Rothermel-Roth.

William I. Rothermel of this city, and Miss Lizzie Roth of Monroe, were married at the house where they will make their home, 208 Center street, at 8 o'clock last evening. Rev. Dr. M. G. Dodge officiating. About thirty-five guests were present and the wedding was a happy one. The bride and groom entered unattended and took their places before the officiating clergyman, being preceded by Miss Libbie Karlen of Monroe, a cousin of the bride, who carried a bouquet of flowers. The decorations were pretty, the bridal party standing under an arch of evergreen and flowers, while two handsome evergreen gates, bearing their names, swung back to let them through.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served. The wedding presents were very numerous and valuable. The Epworth League of the First M. E. church, of which Mr. Rothermel is a prominent member presented them with a handsome rocking chair.

Both bride and groom are well known here. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Roth, of Monroe, but formerly made Janesville her home. The groom is one of Janesville's progressive young business men and one in whom all have the fullest confidence. Mr. and Mrs. Rothermel will begin housekeeping at once. Numerous presents bore testimony as to their popularity and the well wishes of many friends.

Miss Anna Summerville played the wedding march, and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Goetz, Mrs. Jacob Karlen and daughter, Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. N. Roth, and Misses Martha Hefty and Tessie Stearns, all of Monroe.

Anderson Buob.

Fred W. Anderson, of Beloit, and Miss Elizabeth V. Buob, of this city, were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. M. Shorb, in the Waverly flats, at 6 o'clock last evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. H. Pence, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. After the ceremony, a wedding feast was served, and the 9:30 train bore the happy couple to Madison and Milwaukee, where they will visit before taking up their residence at Beloit. The bride is the daughter of John Buob, and is one of Janesville's popular young women, while the groom is a successful Beloit business man. They will reside in the Line City.

IS MR. BRYAN HONEST?

The last thing Mr. Bryan seems likely to do is to treat his audiences with frankness. He tells them for example that under free coinage the market price of silver will be $1.20 an ounce, and also that under free coinage the dollars of the United States will be worth less than they are now. Whoever one of these he honestly and sincerely believes must in his own mind contradict the other absolutely. The Milwaukee Sentinel remarks: "In minds of ordinary clearness these two beliefs could not exist side by side. As soon as either became aware of the other's presence there would be a death struggle. The two beliefs would come to close quarters, grapple, and refuse to break away until one or the other was cold in death and ready to be carried out on a shutter. But in Mr. Bryan's mind either because it is so dense that neither of these beliefs perceives the presence of the other, or because it reduces every conviction which it houses to a condition of limp torpor, these beliefs dwell together in spiritless friendliness. No presidential candidate has ever had a mind in which inconsistencies found such a cordial welcome."

TOBACCO PROSPECTS.

Wisconsin is not the only state that has a big tobacco crop this year. Throughout the United States the crop is said to be very fine and very large. Both in magnitude and quality, the crop is an unusual one, "the highest uniform quality" says the New England Homestead "and the largest yield per acre ever harvested." These statements receive confirmation from local reports. From Connecticut in the east where cigar tobacco is grown and from California in the west, where also it is grown, the news is encouraging for smokers.

As to the profit for growers, the Homestead says that the prospects for prices is better than it has been in any recent year. One of the Connecticut growers talks of twenty cents a pound in the bale. Rock county farmers will be happy if they get considerably less, and Wisconsin tobacco comes nearer to equalling the Connecticut leaf this year than it has since 1882.

THEY WON'T CARRY BRYAN DOLLARS

There are $350,000,000 silver dollars piled up in the treasury vaults today—enough for all ordinary demands it would be supposed. The trouble is nobody wants to lug them around. And yet the free coinage advocates are ranting about the need of more silver money and telling their hearers that the opening of the mints would establish "an unlimited demand" for the white metal which would double its price. The New York Herald suggests that in like manner if a public weighing machine should be opened for the free weighing of potatoes—the tubers to be returned to the owners in packages and guaranteed weight and quality—this would establish "an unlimited demand" for potatoes and they would double in price. Rot!

MR. SEWALL WANTS GOLD.

When asked why he stultified himself and the popocratic party by putting a gold clause in all his contracts, Candidate Sewall justified himself by declaring that "All foreign charter contracts are payable in gold."

Mr. Sewall's example has opened the eyes of a good many patriots who have been declaring that "this country need not regard European trade customs in any way." They find that the popocratic vice presidential candidate is a business man enough not to believe any such thing.

THE BRYAN ODE

The Bryan campaign song has appeared. It is not the American Marse laise—that is Banker St. John's personal property. The Bryan Ode is sung to the tune of "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," and reads as follows:

Softer than the summer breeze
Gently wafted from the south
Are the intonations
Of the automatic mouth.How I love its giddy gurgle,
How I love its ceaseless flow,
How I love to wind my mouth up,
How I love to hear it go!

Hutchison Pitches Good Ball.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 1.—The Millers took Wednesday's game from Indianapolis and succeeded in shutting out the Hoosiers. Hutchison pitched a great game, the only chance the Indians had to score being in the first inning, but the hit was not forthcoming. Score:

Indianapolis.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

German Lutheran Synod.

An Everyday Scene.

Pedestrian—What's all that fuss about in that house—wedding?

Resident—No. A new baby arrived last night, and all the women in the neighborhood are going into ecstasies over it.

"Who is that tall man all the women are crowding around?"
"He is the minister, come to fix a date for the christening.""And who is the short man who attracts so much attention?"
"He is the doctor.""Ah! I see. That no-account fellow, who is pushed out of the way or run over, is the hired man, I presume?"
"No; he's the father."—N. Y. Week-ly.

A Blasted Reputation.

"See here, why do you pass that man by with scorn? You used to say that he had one of the brightest minds you knew of."

"Yes; but I was mistaken. He's a numbskull who doesn't know enough to water a donkey."

"What has caused you to form this opinion of him?"

"He was accepted as a juror last week."—Cleveland Leader.

Mrs. Partington.

An English paper tells of a real Mrs. Partington. She walked into the office of the judge of probate and asked: "Are you the judge of probates?" "I am the judge of probate," was the reply. "Well, that's it, I expect," quoth the lady. "You see, my husband died detested and left me several little infants, and I want to be appointed their executioner!"

He Lacked Experience.

She was wise in her day and generation.

"You are the first, the only woman I ever loved," he had said to her.

"Really?" she had asked, doubtfully.

"I swear it!" he had cried.

"Then," she said, regretfully, "it is better that we should part. You haven't had experience enough, to be sure."—Chicago Post.

OLD AND NEW IDEAS.

THE OLD WAY.

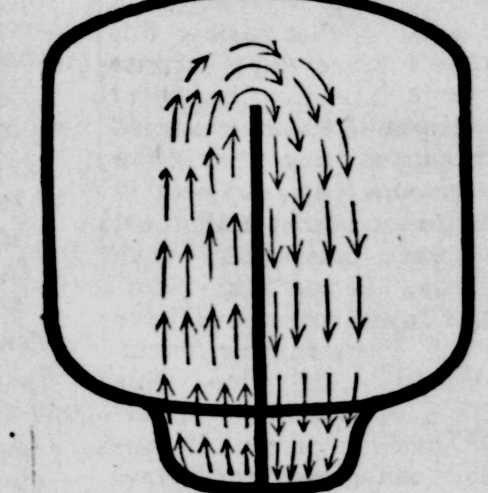

In above Flue Construction there are Four Surfaces Radiating Heat.

THE NEW WAY.

In above Flue Construction there are NINE Surfaces Radiating Heat, increasing the Heating Capacity with the same amount of fuel.

Above cut illustrates the arrangement of Bottom Flues in nearly all base burners, showing the Heat is not Equally Distributed.

The above Bottom Flue Construction causes the Heat to go to the Outer Surfaces, Largely increasing the Heating Capacity and Economizing in Fuel.

The "Favorite" Base Burner has More Heating Capacity and is the Most Economical Stove ever made. Why? Because it has about ½ more Radiating Surface as compared with same sizes of other base burners, and is Mounted and Fitted Perfectly.

CANT PRACTICE LAW IF HE IS ELECTED

J. L. MAHONEY PUT IN A TIGHT PLACE.

Populists Endorse Him For Congress, But Say He Is in a Bad Business, and Must Get Out of It if He Wants To Command Their Respect.

For Congressman.....J. L. MAHONEY. It is embarrassing for J. L. Mahoney.

First district populists have nothing in common with banks or with lawyers.

They endorsed Mr. Mahoney for congress this afternoon but asked him to withdraw from the bar should he be elected.

As for bankers, the campaign watchword of the party was declared to be:

"Get together opposite the banker—opposite the bond-holding, monopolistic ring."

The convention met in the court house. There was one delegate from Racine county with credentials for twelve. Kenosha and LaFayette counties were not represented. C. D. Wooster and J. D. Honeywell, both of Green county, were named as president and secretary and the credentials of delegates were examined.

The endorsement of the democratic congressional nominee was a foregone conclusion and there were no speeches. The first ballot did the business.

It stood: J. L. Mahoney, 16; Wilson Lane, 2; S. Harrington, 1; C. D. Wooster, 1.

The request that Mr. Mahoney withdraw from the bar in case of his election was made by William Young, of this city. Mr. Young pointed to the fact that attorneys were sworn in as officers of the court. The way courts had been run they seemed to afford a very easy way to amend laws without the interposition of the legislature.

"When sworn in as a congressman," said Mr. Young, "our candidate will take an oath to support the law and the constitution. It looks like handicapping a man's oath to put him under the personal will of one man."

Mr. Young dealt severely with government by injunction, and expressed his hate for tyranny and oppression. He would like to see the rule of withdrawal from the bar extended to every public officer up to the president of the United States.

"One word as to the campaign," he said in closing. "Remember the watch word is: Get together; oppose the banker; oppose the bond-holding, monopolistic ring."

A new district committee was appointed, composed of Frank Smock, John Hyland, William Jones, S. Harrington and L. E. Hawery. F. W. Thal, of Milwaukee, democratic nominee for insurance commissioner, addressed the convention along the line of populist work.

BOGUS SILVER MEN DO NOT GO.

Beloit Popocrats Rebel Against "White Metal Men For Office Only."

For Assemblyman.....H. A. MOEBLESPAH. Beloit, Oct. 1.—[Special]—The Third Assembly District Democratic convention which convened in this city yesterday afternoon, nominated H. A. Moeblespah of Clinton, for candidate for assembly. The customary wrangle sprung up over delegates voting without proper credentials. When Democratic Delegate Buckley scoffed at the idea of any delegates to a democratic convention from this city for a number of years having "proper" credentials, Free Silver Chairman Metesker undertook to "sit down" on him. Buckley wouldn't down. He was there for the purpose of assisting in the nomination of a democrat for assemblyman, not a man who was a free silverite for office only. But peace finally reigned and Mr. Buckley's domestic received the nomination. Thus once more Beloit's self appointed free silver leader was crushed, but it was a gentle jam in comparison to the one when the Janesville "boys" were down.

MABIE'S FOWLS ARE ALL GONE

Flock of Plymouth Rock's Disappeared During the Night.

Oscar Mabie who resides on Milwaukee avenue near the fair grounds has consigned 24 1st chickens to some unknown person whom he is now endeavoring to locate. Mr. Mabie says that the birds would weigh about four pounds each and are of the full blooded Plymouth Rock breed. Some time during the night the hen roost was robbed and a few scattering birds that managed to escape during the raid were all that was left to remind him of his once large flock.

LEAF MEN ALL WANT THE GOOD DOLLAR

NO FREE SILVER MEN AMONG CHICAGO FIRMS.

All of Them, and All of Their Employees, Will Vote For McKinley and the Present Money That Is Worth One Hundred Cents—Alderman Heddles' Canvass.

The tobacco men all want McKinley to win.

Alderman S. B. Heddles makes this statement after a three days canvass in the wholesale tobacco district of Chicago. Alderman Heddles returned home last evening and says that there isn't a man in the leaf business in Chicago who does not favor McKinley, sound money and protection. The canvass he made shows that thousands of men, who, in years past, have been classed as "doubtful" or "democratic" will cast their votes this year for the republican ticket. Alderman Heddles has been personally acquainted with these men for years. G. H. Mack and Monroe Freedman are both prominent dealers who were numbered among the prominent democrats of Cook County until this year. All through the tobacco district a number of large American flags are floating from the buildings bearing the names of McKinley and Hobart, sound money and protection. Among the large dealers visited by Alderman Heddles were:

Sutter Brothers.

John H. Meyers & Son.

Schroeder, Reiss & Company.

J. Friedman & Company.

The Hustler Leaf Tobacco Company.

And all of them, and all their employees, are for McKinley and the good dollar of the present time that is worth 100 cents the year round, and in every country on the face of the globe.

SAYS A SON-IN-LAW PUNCHED HIS HEAD

HENRY DOETZENROD CAUSES J. M. MOEERS ARREST.

He Charges Him with Assault and Battery, and Assault with Intent To Commit Great Bodily Harm—The Defendant Gives Bail and Is Released.

Did J. M. Moers punch his father-in-law's head, and in and upon the said father-in-law commit an assault with force of arms, etc., etc?

And with intent to do great bodily harm?

Those are the questions.

On a warrant sworn out in the municipal court by Henry Doetzenrod of the town of LaPrairie, Moers was arrested yesterday afternoon and brought to the city by Constable Wallace Cochran.

Doetzenrod is Moers' father-in-law and in his complaint he charges Moers with "assault with intent to do great bodily harm," and "assault and battery."

Officer Cochran found Moers at his farm four miles east of Clinton yesterday afternoon, and soon had him on the cars bound for this city. Moers was at once taken into court and released on $400 bail.

On the afternoon of Sept. 24, Mr. Doetzenrod says, while he was paying a visit to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Moers, the son-in-law arrived upon the scene in a half drunken condition, and without the least cause.

Doetzenrod says, Moers struck him on the head knocking him down. Moers then kicked in eight of his teeth, Doetzenrod says, besides cutting a deep gash in his head. When Moers appeared before Judge Phelps yesterday afternoon he had but little to say, and his examination was set for Oct. 8. Mr. Doetzenrod is a well-to-do farmer and he says that even though it takes all the money he has, he will prosecute his son-in-law to the full limit of the law.

POSTAL CARD CAUSED A SCENE

Second Ward Household Made Lively By a Missive's Arrival

A second ward man found this postal card lying on the table when he came home:

DEAR FRIEND—It has been impossible for me to call at the house. I have been very busy, and only arrived home from a business trip yesterday. The newspapers announce the presentation of "A Green Goods Man" at the opera house here. I saw it in Newport City the past summer, and it is a great play. I will make amends for my seeming neglect by taking you to see it. I shall secure seats? Yours, JACK.

Anger at once welled up into words, and there was a "scene," with tears, explanations, etc.

The husband vowed that "Jack" should die, and the wife's protest fell on deaf ears.

Finally, however, the husband was made to understand that the card was printed in imitation of writing, and 1,000 of them had been mailed to Janesville women by the management of "A Green Goods Man." The imitation of writing was very clever, and many believed the card to be genuine.

PETTICOATS.

How They Suffer by Ordinary Wear and Their Renovation.

This month will see a universal renovating of petticoats, and with good reason, for the wear and tear of summer holidays leaves only too visible traces in the wardrobe, and petticoats in particular have a hard time of it. On a damp, muddy or dusty excursion the dress is raised out of harm's way, but the petticoat takes its own share of hardship, with the addition of what belongs by right to the dress skirt. It is spotted by water, stained by mud and grass, permeated by dust, and, however carefully it may be brushed daily, unless it is of a kind that can be washed its beauty is soon a thing of the past. Silk petticoats suffer most in the campaign, although delicate shades of alpaca and moreen do not come forth scathless. As for lace trimmed ones, they ought to be kept from the outset for house and piazza wear. The delicate, bell shaped, much beruffled petticoats of lawn or cambric that have figured so well under sheer organdie gowns will answer quite as well for evening wear during the winter if they are carefully laundered, provided that the lace has not been torn. If it has, it should be replaced, tulle or valenciennes being the most desirable variety to use. The frayed and discolored ruffles of the silk petticoat may be ripped off and replaced by fresh ones, not necessarily of the same color, the garment itself being well shaken and pressed with a warm flatiron before the new frills are added. These may be of plain silk if the skirt is figured, or vice versa if harmony of color is preserved. Moreen and alpaca petticoats must be well shaken, brushed and aired and the edges rebound or freshly faced. If the material has been wet, it should be pressed.

HALF MOURNING COSTUME.

The sketch illustrates a rather elaborate costume for half mourning. The accordion plaited skirt of black crepe de chine is made over an underskirt of black taffeta. The bodice, which forms a blouse in front, is of black crepe de chine, embroidered with jet, and has a wide, soft belt of black satin. The sleeves of crepe de chine are shirred lengthwise and have a puff at the top as well as three crape plaitings.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FUTURE FASHIONS.

Curls Will Be Worn Again—Straight Sacks and Capes.

Few ornaments are worn in the hair. The large shell comb is sometimes placed at the back in the Spanish style, side combs continue to be employed, and bows are seen with full dress. For ordinary occasions nothing in the way of ornament is necessary. Curls are said to be coming into vogue, and bunches of them are to be worn at the back of the neck and falling over the temples.

The straight sack will be much seen during the autumn and winter. For the early fall they are of thin cloth and silk, heavy cloth and velvet being the materials chosen for cold weather. When they are made of cloth, the sacks are finished with collar and cuffs of velvet, galloon, stitching or embroidery, and the same decorations are employed for silk. For velvet rich passementerie and fur are chosen. The sacks mounted in plaits are less ugly than the plain ones, but still more suggestive of a dressing jacket.

Capes will continue to be fashionable, for they are too convenient and becoming to be quickly discarded, although certainly they are not warm for winter wear.

AUTUMN TOILET.

however thick may be the goods of which they are composed. The flutes and ripples act as conduits for chilly air, and there is a constant sensation as of a draft among the folds. The styles will be more or less changed and diversified. There will be much soutache and galloon of steel and gold and silver and gold used as trimming; also large revers of velvet or embroidery. During the winter fur will be worn in the form of stoles, revers, collars and little fancifully cut pelerines. It is too early yet to say positively that it will be as fashionable as it was last winter, but it will certainly be much in evidence.

Today's illustration shows a gown of beige diagonal. The bodice is ornamented in front by three small plaits framing the bodice. The fitted bodice has bolero fronts of needle point, which form coquilles and make epaulets at the top of the sleeves. The high, folded corset is of emerald green satin merveilleux and the chemisette of cream mousseline de soie. The high collar of green satin has a frill of lace. The tight sleeves are made with small puffs at the top, the tight portion being adorned with clusters of plaits.

A BRAVE SOUTHERN WOMAN

Sung "The Bonnie Blue Flag" While Yankees Burned Her Home.

"I have often declared," said J. B. McCullagh of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, "that I saw the bravest deed of the war, or at least one of the bravest, which was done by a woman. The brave woman to whom I refer was a rebel and the incident of her bravery occurred on a branch of the Mississippi. This branch was not very wide and we were fired on every now and again by the confederates from the levees as we went up in order to prevent supplies being brought into the Mississippi. At last Commander Ellett grew very angry at their continuous firing. He said that if the rebel shots killed or wounded any of his men he would burn every house within five miles of the place of shooting. I told him that I would be better satisfied with his order if we could notify the people of their danger. He said nothing in reply and the order was in force. When we dropped anchor one of the men was shot at from the levee and killed. Ellett at once ordered several companies to leave the boat in different directions and to burn every house within a distance of five miles. He ordered me to take one of the companies and to burn a fine house lying within a stone's throw of the river. I did not like the job, but as I was an enlisted man I had to obey. We left the boat and started for the house. As we approached we saw a fine-looking old lady on the front step. She asked us what we wanted and I gave the orders of my commander. She at once became very indignant, but said that it was likely that one of her sons had shot the Yankee and that if so she was very glad of it. She scolded me for being in the union service and told me that I ought to be ashamed to serve with the Yankees. With all her scolding, however, she was a lady, as you could easily see from her language. I told her that I was sorry, but my orders were imperative and that I would have to burn her house. 'Still,' said I, 'I think my orders might be construed as Portia did the bond of Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice" when she told him he might have his pound of Antonio's flesh, but with it he must take no jot of blood. It seems to me," said I, "that while our orders require us to burn the house they do not state that we must burn all within the house. Now, I have no doubt that you have some family pictures, furniture, dresses and other things of value which might be saved. These you cannot move out yourself, but there are eighteen of my men here and we will, if you say, bring out all of your furniture and put it on the lawn before we set fire to the house." The old lady tossed her head and replied that she did not care what we did and if we burned the house we might as well burn the furniture, too. She said, however, that she had a favorite rocking chair and that she would feel much obliged to us if we would take it out and set it on the bank of the river before we started the fire. We did as she directed. She then seated herself in the chair and as the match was applied to her house she began to sing. She had a good voice and her words rang out across the water, reaching our steamer. Her song was 'The Bonnie Blue Flag.' She continued singing that song until the house was almost reduced to ashes. She was," continued Mr. McCullagh, "the bravest woman I have ever known."

Adopts Nine Girls at Once.

Leon Hartman of Dubuque, Ia., is a widower, the father of nine sturdy boys, and is worth $40,000. He is also a big-hearted man, and Tuesday in New York he adopted nine fatherless girls to keep his boys company and agreed to give their mother a home.

The mother is the widow of his brother, who lately died abroad. She arrived at Ellis island Tuesday, having crossed the ocean from Rotterdam on the Netherlands-American steamer Spaarndam. The first person she met was her brother-in-law, who had come all the way from Iowa to greet her. The children, ranging in age from 3 to 15 years, are all bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked girls, and they so completely won Mr. Hartman's heart that he at once offered to adopt them. The mother was willing. So were the Ellis island officials, and the papers were at once drawn up and signed by the interested parties. Then Mr. Hartman, accompanied by his nine daughters and their mother, left Ellis island and took an afternoon train for Dubuque, where nine sons will give them a rousing welcome.

The mother is possessed of considerable money in her own right, and it is more than likely that when Dubuque is reached she will marry her brother-in-law.—Chicago Chronicle.

Fasted Nearly Two Years.

Dr. Tanner's famous fast of forty days is thrown into the background as a starvation feat by the performance of the big anaconda at the Philadelphia zoological gardens, which was only recently tempted to eat a nice fat rabbit after going hungry for twenty-two months. It may have been even longer, but the keepers have no record of the creature's doing previous to its captivity, and so can't tell. It is not very unusual for a snake to abstain from food for several months, at the end of which time death generally results; but the anaconda's case is distinctly different from any other. Its fast lasted over twice as long as any in the history of the "Zoo," and during the whole of its continuance there was no evidence of ill-health. The spell now seems to be entirely broken, and the anaconda calls regularly for its meals.

EVERY DAY HINTS!

For Every Day People.

You may have delayed the purchase of the much needed stove, but surely if you are going to get one this year you want one right away. Let us suggest to you

A Garland,
A Peninsular, or A Radiant Home.

All of them are the best made. More Garlands in use in the city than any other make; they do the work in the cold weather and have points no other stove contains. A business man here in town bought a large size Radiant Home of us the other day and said he wouldn't use any other make when he could buy the Radiant Home---it heated better and burned less fuel than other stoves. 'Tis a fact that all three stoves handled by us are best and most economical.

Trade is becoming more and more active every day in our

Shoe
Department. . .

It's a favorite buying place for ladies and men because they get the best of shoes cheaper of us than at other stores. We shoe everybody at a saving of from $1 to $2 a pair. New fall goods are here and coming almost every day.

Crockery and Glassware

Prices have received a great bump at our hands. We are selling an enormous quantity and are enlarging our already magnificent stock continually. Hardly a week goes by that we do not fit out a young married couple with housekeeping utensils.

Sets of dishes, pretty single pieces and elegant imported ware we sell much of A new importation of china and glassware direct from Germany, France and Austria just received. Small prices for them.

It's remarkable the amount of working men's Shoes, Jackets, Pants, Shirts, Hose, Overalls and Underwear we sell, all because the qualities are best and the prices lowest at the big cash store.

Only When It Rains.
One rainy day last year Kosciuszko Jones, being in a hurry to get home, took a street car. There was a big crack in the roof of the car, through which the rain fell and ran down the back of his neck, so he asked the urbane conductor:
"What's the matter with this car? Does it do this way always?"
"No sir; only when it rains."—Texas Sifter.

A HOT PLACE TO LIVE IN.

On the Coast of Persia Discounts the Famous Red Sea.

The hottest region on the earth's surface is on the southwestern coast of Persia, on the border of the Persian gulf, says the Detroit Free Press.
For forty consecutive days in the months of July and August the mercury has been known to stand above 100 degrees in the shade night and day and to run up as high as 130 degrees in the middle of the afternoon. At Bahrain, in the center of the most torrid part of this most torrid belt, as though it were nature's intention to make the place as unbearable as possible, water from wells is something unknown. Great shafts have been sunk to a depth of 100, 200, 300 and even 500 feet, but always with the same result—no water. This serious drawback, notwithstanding, a comparatively numerous population contrive to live there, thanks to copious springs which burst forth from the bottom of the gulf more than a mile from the shore.

The water from these springs is obtained in a most curious and novel manner. "Machadores" (divers), whose sole occupation is that of furnishing the people of Bahrain with the life-giving fluid, repair to that portion of the gulf where the springs are situated and bring away with them hundreds of bags of water each day. The water of the gulf where the springs burst forth is nearly 200 feet deep, but these machadores manage to fill their goat-skin sacks by diving to the bottom and holding the mouths of the bags over fountain jets—this, too, without allowing the salt water of the gulf to mix with it. The source of these submarine fountains is thought to be in the hills of Osmond, 400 or 500 miles away. Being situated at the bottom of the gulf, it is a mystery how they were ever discovered, but the fact remains that they have been known since the dawn of history.

His Patent in Danger.

Attorney Garrett McEnery recently appeared as counsel in a case before a justice of the peace at Suvaun. McEnery found it necessary to make frequent objections to the evidence that the opposing counsel was attempting to introduce. The justice, whose first rule of evidence is "everything goes," looked first annoyed and then indignant. Finally he could contain himself no longer and, as a ruling on on of Mr. McEnery's objections, roared:
"Mr. McEnery, what kind of a lawyer are you, anyway?"
"I'm a patent lawyer," replied the attorney, facetiously.
"Well all I've got to say is that when the patent expires you will have a hard time getting it renewed. Go on with the case."—San Francisco Post.

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood, has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impunity. If there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood, the only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood. That means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists, digestion by stimulating the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition; purifies and enriches the blood and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong, healthy flesh and puts the whole body into a disease-resisting state.

Special . Announcement.

We take pleasure in announcing to our patrons and the public in general, that on and after October 15, 1896, our business will be run on a strictly cash basis. We have made arrangements under this system whereby we can make the most liberal offers ever known in the annals of trade. Notwithstanding our reputation has always been that we are the most enterprising merchants in this section, and that at our store has always been found the best goods the market afforded at the very lowest prices.

Please do not think that we have any doubts as to your credit. We have as much confidence in our friends and customers as ever, and wish to impress this fact upon everyone, also the fact that we are not trying to see how little, but how much we can give for a dollar.

This system of doing business has passed the experimental stage and has been adopted by many of the leading merchants of the East and its success has been the means of doing much good in different ways both to customers and dealers. We have devoted much time in carefully considering this matter and go into it with the determination of giving our customers the full benefit of its numerous advantages, knowing that if you give this method a little thought, you will agree with us and thus appreciate this golden opportunity of purchasing excellent footwear for cash at prices that save you money.

Thanking you for your past patronage, we hope by future enterprise, liberality and fair dealings to merit a continuance of the same.

We are yours truly,

A. Richardson Shoe Co.

On Thursday Morning Oct. 1st

we adopt the STRICTLY CASH PLAN in our business. We believe from the thorough manner in which we have placed this matter before our patrons that there will be no misunderstanding about it. We expect under no circumstance to deviate from this plan. But we have an inducement for you to pay cash. We will surely save you money. We shall make prices in every department of our business a little lower than merchants who do a credit business can afford to make. A little saving on every Dry Goods item, A little per cent. in favor of the cash buyer. A little cash saved on every little purchase. This cash plan resolves itself into the fact, that must be apparent to every person, that merchandise can be sold cheaper for spot cash than on long time and uncertain credit. We propose to give our cash trade the benefit of these savings; and you have only to try us to prove these facts to your own satisfaction.

"A Penny Saved Is a Penny Earned"

From 5 to 10 per cent. saved is from 5 to 10 per cent. earned. Careless people don't mind these little savings. Careful people do mind these little savings. We invite the patronage of all who are careful, who are saving, who are economical, who believe the purchasing power of cash is superior to the plan of long credits. Try our cash plan, you will like it.

THEY SAY

That a man talks about the weather because he don't know enough to talk about anything else. That's about the case with the man who has always been going to a tailor. He pays about 40 per cent. too much; but he don't know about any other kind of clothes. Show him a Stein-Bloch suit and you have started him off on a new line of thought. Common sense, is it not, to get as much for your money as you can?

You Must Remember that the "wholesale tailors" employ tailors, can buy the best fabrics, have straight connections with the most authoritative fashion centers, and can make a suit because they make many, at half the merchant tailor's price.
